NAHMA Educational Foundation

How to enter your application for an education scholarship

ELIGIBILITY

Must be a resident of a CAHEC-sponsored community.

High school senior or hold either a High School Diploma or GED, and you must be pursuing higher education at an accredited college, community college, university, or trade/professional school or institute.

Applications for graduate level programs will not be accepted.

The program requires that an applicant be a resident in good standing at a CAHEC-sponsored community and be either a high school senior or a matriculated student at an accredited college or trade/technical school. High school seniors must have a minimum of a 2.5 grade point average in order to apply; matriculated post-secondary students must be maintaining at least a 2.3 grade point average in order to apply.

APPLICATION

The process requires applicants to complete an online application form, including an essay, two references, and a Certification of Residency in Good Standing form. A current grade transcript is also necessary and is the only application component sent via U.S. Mail to the foundation. All necessary forms are provided within the web-based application and no hard copies are needed.
