Expanding Affordable Housing Throughout the Southeast
CAHEC Closes Six Properties in the Second Quarter of 2024

Raleigh, N.C., July 2024 –

Working towards its mission of strengthening communities by providing affordable housing, CAHEC is proud to announce the closing of six affordable housing properties throughout the second quarter that will help ensure everyone has access to a home they can afford. The six properties, located throughout North and South Carolina, have a combined total of 602 units of affordable housing and $53,996,848 of net equity. These projects combine new construction, acquisition, and rehabilitation, where existing affordable housing communities are preserved and enhanced. The projects closed in the second quarter of 2024 include:

- Azalea Park – Summerville, SC
- Birch and Branch Apartments – Raleigh, NC
- Elijah's Landing – Morehead City, NC
- Meadowgreen Apartments – Reidsville, NC
- Mountain Glen Apartments – Brevard, NC
- Stateside Landing at Roanoke – Roanoke Rapids, NC

“The projects completed in the last quarter hold significant importance, serving as exemplars of our commitment not only to forging new pathways in affordable housing but also to preserving and revitalizing existing communities that remain affordable. As the demand for affordable housing continues to rise, CAHEC takes immense pride in our role within collaborative partnerships that create or preserve affordable rental communities across the Southeastern region.,” stated Greg Mayo, Vice President of Acquisition and Risk Management.
